Our Role

Provelio recognise that effective supply chain management is about meeting client needs; attaining what is required, when and at the price it is needed. Provelio use their extensive procurement experience and expertise to ensure a rigorous briefing process develops procurement solutions that align with the client's objectives. Provelio manage the procurement of consultants and contractors under framework agreements from inception, through pre-qualification and tender selection to contract award and beyond into the delivery phase. We adopt a structured, process-driven yet flexible approach providing the client with the appropriate access to the right framework partners. Provelio understand public procurement (OJEU) procedures and are thorough in their approach to ensure compliance by working to the procedures and not being constrained by them.

Client Benefits

Provelio have successfully managed the procurement of supply chain partners for many clients and for many varied disciplines. Following on from effective briefing to clearly establish what is required; selecting the right company to undertake the works and services is at the heart of successful procurement. We have mapped out processes that work; they are rigorous and structured for effective selection ensuring compliance without being unnecessarily rigid or time consuming.
